SUNDAY 15 MAY 2PM - 6PM

SATURDAY 14 MAY 10AM - 2PM & SUNDAY 15 MAY 2PM - 6PM

SATURDAY 14 MAY • 10AM - 2PM

1. Wyn Griffiths

71 Dennett's Road, SE14 5LJ

A concrete front yard experiment into growing for biodiversity and food using raised beds, pots, found objects and upcycled planters. The garden is a small front yard, opening on to Dennett's Road.

2. Louise and Ken 81 Waller Road, SE14 5LB

An open, sunny garden with a mixture of fruit and flowers. Designed with plenty of spaces to sit and have a cup of tea!

SUNDAY IS MAY • 2PM - 6PM

3. Penny May 64 Sprules Road, SE4 2NN

L shaped garden with grass and beds on the south east slope of Telegraph hill. My piece of country in the city.

4. Helen LeFevre 101 Pepys Road, SE14 5SE Access via side gate.

A longer Telegraph Hill garden, the landscaping divides the garden into rooms featuring mature trees, shrubs and natural planting. Raised vegetable beds, a greenhouse and a nature pond also feature

5. Judy

98 Erlánger Road, SE14 5TH A fairly wild and hopefully wildilfe friendly garden. All welcome and I would love to exchange ideas about wildlife friendly gardening.

6. The Jerningham Levels The Garden Flat, 102 Jerningham Road SE14 5NW
A formerly sloping garden now in a serie

A formerly sloping garden now in a series of terraces, with a combination of structures and informal planting.

7. Dill Anstey and Paul Dawson 47 Jerningham Road, SE14 5NQ Side gate entrance. Sunny borders, a shady lane, a pergola, a ferny woodland and a California redwood.

SATURDAY 14 MAY • 10AM - 2PM & SUNDAY 15 MAY 2PM - 6PM

8. Mary Lee

39 Sprules Road, SE4 2NL

You won't forget(-me-not) this honest(y) cottage garden full of love(-in-a-mist), tea pots and fire buckets...

9. Becky & Adrian Reed 72 Bousfield Road, SE14 5TR

L-shaped garden with old & new planting, rose arch, clematis and other climbers. Old apple tree with swing, and a small pond.

10. Caroline Thorp 9 Gellatly Road, SE14 5TU Entrance on Arbuthnot Rd.

A long walled garden broken into areas of backyard with pots, sunny lawn & herbaceous beds, fruit & veg patch, shaded lawn and sheds.

11. Chris and Francesca 12 Pepys Road, SE14 5SB

Green haven, trees, bit of grass, hopefully some flowers. Not overly tidy. Home made fencing. Some steps for access.

12. Fiona Branson

112a St Asaph Road, SE4 2EN

I grow fruit and vegetables, and as there is no street access to my back garden, I will be opening up a stall in my front garden, with plants / fresh produce / preserves for sale.

13. Shelagh Hornby (5) 37 Kitto Road, SE14 5TW

North facing narrow garden with mixed planting, aiming to encourage wildlife. Includes soft fruit and veg beds.

14. Siobán & Bruce Whitney Low 118 Erlanger Road, SE14 5TJ A shady rural feel with fruit trees and meadow planting.

15. Jenny Schmidt 15. Jenny Sc

182 Drakefell Rd, Basement, SE4 2DS Been told it's the most quirky & weird garden ever...with lots of photos being taken daily. Steps down to a basement front garden. 16. Aspinall Road Community Garden
Entry point between 92 and 94 Drakefell Rd
Two small green spaces either side of footbridge spanning railway cutting. Unofficial and spontaneous product of road bridge collapse in 1961, pandemic and things salvaged from skips. Planters, seating, book swap, Artmongers rainbow mural. Obviously the garden is available to be visited at any time - it is public realm.

17. Hattie S

18a Erlanger Road, SE14 5TG

A young garden (only a year since moving in), with a focus on colour and encouraging wildlife. I also have a display of prototypes for my Green Wall company (www.getleafy.co.uk) which make a plain brick wall much more interesting!

18. Chris & Paul Banks 101 Jerningham Road, SE14 5NH Long calm SE-facing garden backing on to the Nature Reserve. Home to trees, shrubs, perennials, a pond, a produce patch, lots of birds & wildlife, and many reclaimed pallet planters.

Entry to the gardens is free. Donations are welcome to fund new trees for Telegraph Hill (via Street Trees for Living).

Only cash payments are accepted for donations (NO contactless.)

No dogs please.
